The Walpole Settee

Details

These solid timber settees are based on an original pair in the Lower Hall at Houghton from the 1730s. They have panelled backs and carved armrests, and are suitable for either inside or outside use. Available as a two-or-three seater. The solid timber hall settee can be ordered either in mahogany or primed pine for interior use, or primed hardwood for outside.

Delivery

Carriage charges can be quoted upon confirmation of the delivery address.
